2. A day-long conference at [] between the Office of Training and the [] has pointed to the advisability of having [] represented permanently at [] much the same manner as is the Office of Communications. [] would be able to continue some of its testing programs, give instruction in [] subjects in OTR courses at [] and work jointly with OTR in the development of new devices and techniques. The subject will be pursued by the top staffs of OTR and [] in Washington with a view to an early decision.

3. During the past month, procedures have been initiated which will permit evaluation of the current program of language aptitude testing. It is anticipated these studies will be complete by the end of the fiscal year. To improve the program further, an unclassified contract has been arranged with [] for the purpose of developing and validating tests of language aptitude. [] will do his work with university students in programs where the emphasis is on spoken rather than written aspects of the language. [] results will be available by the end of the fiscal year. On the basis of this contract and the in-service program, it is hoped that an appreciable improvement can be made in the prediction of success or failure in learning foreign languages.
